Reference Letter

To whom it may concern

I highly recommend Vasile Fana as a candidate for employment. Vasile Fana was a student at the Faculty of Engineering in our university and, as his former English teacher, I can say that he has excellent speaking, writing and reading skills. Vasile is able to communicate with foreign people no matter the discussion topic.

As a student, Vasile Fana has remarked himself as a serious person and a hard-working student. He is a very ambitious and creative young man, willing to work on any project that is assigned to him. Vasile can work independently as well as in a team and is very responsible when it comes to dead-lines. Given his personality, he is able to easily interact with people and respects others' opinion even when they differ from his own. He is an active presence and, given his great sense of humor, he is a pleasant person to work with.

In the future, I am certain that Vasile is going to achieve anything he sets his mind to. Vasile Fana is a truly stand-out individual who will impress everyone he meets.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Telibaşa Gabriela

To Whom It May Concern:

I warmly recommend Vasile Fana as a hardworking and reliable person. He is now a 4th year student, specializing in Computers Science and Informational Technologies at the Faculty of Engineering, "Vasile Alecsandri" University of Bacau, Romania. I have known him, as his Industrial Informatics and other courses teacher, since he entered our university. He has proven to be a very good student, showing a great interest in improving his knowledge related to the Computer systems but also for the Information Technologies.

Vasile Fana exhibits some good characteristics, such as independent, excellent participation in class and confidence, and he also has a great sense of responsibility which I consider to be essential to success in further studies or activities. His ability to cleverly use the information taught has definitely made a good impression on me, and I am sure that he can show it whenever he is faced with a challenging task. He has shown very good team playing skills working on different class projects and school projects.

I strongly believe that he could comply with all the requirements for any activity in which he might be involved.

Yours sincerely,

RE: Vasile Fana

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter with pleasure for a reference on Vasile Fana.

Vasile worked for Chatham Bars Inn during the summer of 2014. The Chatham Bars Inn is a member of the "Leading Hotels of the World" Resort. Vasile's personality and ability to "get it done" meets the high standards which our guests expect. He is a very hard worker, energetic, responsible and honest employee. Vasile has a high level of work ethics, always willing to work, always on time, and always in full uniform.

We honestly hate to see Vasile leave us and would hire him back in the near future if he so desired.

Sincerely,

William P. Holland
